AAPG Imperial Barrel Award Program
Joint College/University Interest Form

Requirements (as stated in the IBA Rules and Operating Procedures, Section 1, Item 7):

- A school that cannot create an IBA team from their current student enrollment may, with IBA Committee approval, combine their students with those from another school within its Region to create an IBA team.
- One school will serve as the host school and be the "office" for the exploration team.
- The host school must have a minimum of three students on the created team and all technical interpretation and preparation of the dataset must be done at the host school using its facilities and supervision.
- This host school will supply the team advisor.
- Transportation to and from the Region or Global Final program will originate from and terminate at the individual team member's school.
- Team designation and prize money will be divided between the participating schools and said division must be declared to the IBA Committee prior to the combined team participating in the IBA competition.

If you need to request software, please do so before datasets are released in January. Software providers can be found online at iba.aapg.org/software.

The AAPG is unable to provide insurance to cover participants in the IBA program. Participating students and Faculty Advisors are expected to obtain insurance to cover injury, death, illness and loss or damage to personal property during periods of travel associated with the program. To be certain that this issue is fully understood and recognized by participants, all participants (team members and traveling Faculty Advisors) are required to sign the Imperial Barrel Award Release Waiver and Indemnity Agreement as a prerequisite to taking part in the program. Universities applying with only one team should send the signed agreements to their relevant Region Coordinator before the datasets are released. Universities holding internal competitions should send the signed agreements to their Region Coordinator when the team taking part in the semifinal is known. If signed agreements are not received from all team members and the Faculty Advisor in the manner above, the team is liable to expulsion from the program.
